Select the correct answer for each question from the list provided. This is simply an activity to see how you are progressing so far.

1. Assessment validation is used to:
   a. Measure time frames
   b. Ensure the assessment tool meets the 'principles of assessment'
   c. Be seen to be doing the right thing
   d. Fill in time

2. The ‘rules of evidence’ are:
   a. Another set of rules to consider
   b. Dimensions of competency
   c. Valid, sufficient, current, authentic

3. Different approaches for assessment validation can be:
   a. One day, someday or any day
   b. Before, during or after assessment has occurred
   c. When time is available

4. External assessment validation involves:
   a. Other training organisations or industry
   b. Validating outside
   c. Doing validation after hours

5. Selecting the best approach for a validation also needs to take into consideration:
   a. Organisational procedures, record keeping, available resources, regulatory requirements
   b. Not sure
   c. What the manager is doing in the office

6. If you personally developed the assessment tool:
   a. No one else needs to be involved in the validation; you know what you are doing!
   b. Other experienced trainer/assessors to ensure all necessary areas have been considered and interpreted correctly

Connect Training Group: Version 1: June 2010