

TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment - Dive Instructors Fast Track

Course description

The Certificate IV in Training and Assessment (TAE40116) is the most current nationally recognised qualification that specifies the competencies required for a qualified trainer to plan, develop, deliver and assess training. Candidates generally undertake this qualification because they possess vocational competence in a specific industry/subject/technical area and they need to develop or extend competence in training and assessment to facilitate and assess the learning of other individuals.

Who should study the training and assessment qualification?

- Dive Instructors who facilitate First Aid training or other accredited courses
- Those for whom training and assessing is a main part of their work role
- Those who want nationally recognised training and assessing qualifications

Program overview for Dive Instructors

The Training and Assessment qualification consists of ten (10) units of competence including nine core units and one elective unit. This course has been specifically designed to take into consideration your previous learning and current skills based on your Dive Instructor experiences, so you can FAST TRACK this qualification. If you meet the documentation requirements detailed below, you will receive Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) for 3 or more of the ten (10) units of required for this qualification and depending on current experiences, partial recognition for some of the other assessment task requirements.

To meet the entry requirements of this course and be eligible for RPL, you will need to provide the following evidence:

- Scanned copy of your Dive Instructor qualification and details of courses you have delivered to date
- Arrange for your Dive manager/supervisor to sign a Statutory Declaration (provided by Connect Training Group) to verify your ability at meeting specific workplace training and mentoring skills AND/OR your current resume with email contact details for referees to support your diver/trainer experience
- Completion of a questionnaire to confirm your current training/assessing practices

This program is delivered online allowing you to log in and work through your course at a time and place suitable to your needs

Course Duration & Enrolment Period

We suggest that each remaining lesson will take approximately 5 - 35 hours to complete. This is a very generous estimate that also depends on your previous experience and current skills and knowledge.

You have a 12-month enrolment period for this course, however you can work through this course as quickly as you prefer.

Description of units to be completed

If you meet the entry requirements of the Dive Instructors course, you will only need to complete the following units to achieve this full qualification (TAE40116: Certificate IV in Training and Assessment).

This course has been developed into the following five (5) lessons. Units you may achieve recognition for, have been marked as such below.

1) Training Packages

TAEDES402: Use Training Packages & accredited courses to meet client needs

This unit addresses the skills and knowledge required to use Training Packages and accredited courses. This includes identifying and sourcing Training Packages and accredited courses to meet client needs, and interpreting the requirements of Training Package/s including the competency standards/units, the packaging rules for qualifications and the assessment guidelines.

2) Develop & Deliver Learning Programs

Partial RPL received for some of the tasks associated with these units..

TAEDES401: Design and develop learning programs

This unit specifies the competency required to contextualise, design, develop and review learning programs to meet an identified need for a group of learners. It addresses the skills and knowledge needed to identify the parameters of a learning program, determine its design, outline the content, and review its effectiveness. It applies to trainers or facilitators who work under limited supervision to design, or develop, learning programs that are discrete, and provide a planned learning approach that relates to specific learning and training needs, or part of the learning design for a qualification.

TAEDEL401: Plan, organise and deliver group-based learning (RPL)

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to plan, organise and deliver training for individuals within a group. It applies to a person working as an entry-level trainer, teacher or facilitator structuring a learning program developed by others in, or with, a training and assessment organisation.

TAEDEL402: Plan, organise and facilitate learning in the workplace (RPL)

This unit describes skills and knowledge required to plan, organise and facilitate learning for individuals in a workplace, using real work activities as the basis for learning. It applies to a person working as an entry-level trainer, teacher or facilitator or an employee, team leader or workplace supervisor responsible for guiding learning through work.

3) Assessment Validation

TAEASS403: Participate in assessment validation

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to participate in an assessment validation process. It applies to assessors and workplace supervisors with assessment validation responsibilities participating in, but not necessarily leading, the process. Evidence requirements include actively participating in 3 validation sessions that address the critical aspects of validation.

4) Design, Plan & Assess Competence: You may receive partial RPL received for some of the tasks associated with these units, if you have assessed a minimum of 5 candidates against a unit of competency.

TAEASS401: Plan assessment activities and processes

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to plan the assessment process, including recognition of prior learning (RPL), in a competency-based assessment system. It applies to individuals with assessment planning responsibilities. In planning activities and processes, individuals are required to identify the components of assessment tools, analyse and interpret assessment tools, and develop assessment instruments (also known as assessment tasks) and assessment plans. Assessment tasks/evidence will confirm you have planned and organised the assessment process on a minimum of 5 occasions.

TAEASS402: Assess competence

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to implement an assessment plan, and gather quality evidence to assess the competence of a candidate using compliant assessment tools. It applies to teachers, trainers and assessors in enterprises and registered training organisations (RTOs) and those providing assessment advisory services. Assessment/ evidence includes the assessment of at least 5 candidates within a VET context against at least 1 unit of competency or accredited unit. The assessment decision must be undertaken in collaboration of a qualified VET trainer (This could be either your Connect trainer, or a qualified trainer you have access to in your work / training environment).

TAEASS502: Design and Develop Assessment Tools

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to design and to develop assessment tools used to guide the collection of quality evidence, including their application in formative, summative and recognition of prior learning (RPL) assessment. The candidate must show evidence of the ability to complete tasks outlined in the elements and performance criteria of this unit, including: developing at least three assessment tools that support different assessment methods, and address at least one unit of competency each.

TAEASS301: Contribute to Assessment

This unit describes the skills and knowledge required to contribute to the assessment process.

It applies to a person with technical or vocational expertise who is in a supervisory or mentoring/coaching work role, and for whom collecting the evidence for assessment is an adjunct to principal work responsibilities. The unit applies to those involved in collecting evidence for assessment against units of competency or accredited courses. (RPL)

5) Adult LLNTAELLN411: Address language, literacy and numeracy requirements.

This unit describes the performance outcomes, skills and knowledge required to recognise the core language, literacy and numeracy (LLN) demands of training and assessment, and to tailor training and assessment to suit individual skill levels, including accessing relevant support resources.

This unit introduces trainers and assessors to core language, literacy and numeracy issues in training and assessment practice. Competence in this unit does not indicate that a person is a qualified specialist adult language, literacy or numeracy practitioner. Evidence to be addressed includes: the ability to use tools to identify the LLN skill requirements (reading, writing, speaking, listening and numeracy) of the training specification and/or assessment process relevant to vocational delivery and customise and use at least two learning resources to address LLN requirements and select, use and review at least two assessment strategies that cater for the identified LLN needs of the learner group
