

TAE50116: Diploma of Vocational Education and Training (VET)

RPL PATHWAY ONLY

Qualification Information

This qualification reflects the roles of experienced practitioners delivering training and assessment services, usually within Registered Training Organisations (RTOs), within the vocational education and training (VET) sector. They may have a role in leading other trainers and assessors and in providing mentoring or advice to new trainers or assessors as well as designing approaches to learning and assessment strategies across a significant area within the RTO.

We provide this qualification as a recognition (RPL) pathway only.

If you have extensive vocational experience in training and assessment within a RTO or similar organisation, this qualification pathway will assist you in having these skills and knowledge recognised.

Who should complete this RPL pathway?

- Those wanting to formalise and have recognised current skills in training and assessing
- Those who want a nationally recognised higher level training and assessment qualification
- VET trainers who currently deliver the TAE40110/TAE40116 Certificate IV in training and assessment and whom now need a higher level VET qualification to do this
- Those for whom training and/or assessing is a main part of their work role

RPL – Preferred pathways

Please note these are NOT pre-requisites, simply suggested experiences and qualifications that can assist with achieving this qualification.

This RPL pathway is for candidates whom have already achieved the TAE40110/TAE40116 Certificate IV in training and assessment, and have vocational experience in training and assessment roles within an RTO or similar organisation where the focus has been on competency based training

OR

After achieving another relevant VET qualification and have vocational experience in training and assessment roles within an RTO or similar organisation where the focus has been on competency based training and assessment

OR

After demonstrating extensive vocational experience in training and assessment roles within an RTO, or similar organisation, where the focus has been on competency based training and assessment

OVERVIEW OF SOME OF THE EXPERIENCE/EVIDENCE REQUIREMENTS

It is important to note that part of evidence requirements for this qualification include at a minimum, that you have:

- Assessed a minimum of 20 candidates against a minimum of 50 units of competency (these do not have to be all different units)
- You have conducted a minimum of 100 hours of group facilitation

- Developed a minimum of 2 learning and assessment/training and assessment strategies for different outcomes/contexts/target groups
- Led assessment among a group or team of at least 3 trainers/colleagues and can demonstrate how this leadership has led to improved processes and outcomes
- Designed and developed a minimum of 2 print based resources that reflect client needs, and include a copy of the completed resources, consultation methods, research and findings and the review and trial of at least one of these resources
- Other skill requirements are based on elective unit choices

Course Pre-Requisites and language, literacy and numeracy requirements

There are no formal entry requirements for this course, however you will need to:

- Have current and extensive experience working in a RTO or training enterprise as an experienced practitioner delivering training and assessment services within the VET sector (for a minimum period of 2 years) and have lead a team of assessors to develop their skills
- Preferably have already obtained the TAE40110 / TAE40116 Certificate IV in training and assessment or other relevant training/teaching qualifications
- Sufficient language, literacy and numeracy skills to:
 - Interpret and comprehend written information to develop learning and assessment content and processes

Packaging rules and description of units

The Diploma of VET (TAE50116) requires the completion of 10 units of competency, consisting of 6 core units and 4 elective units. We have clustered these units into the following strategy, which is further detailed in our RPL kit, allowing you to also select different elective pathways based on your experiences and preferences. This will also allow the most streamlined way of gathering evidence for units that have similar learning outcomes.

CLUSTER 1: Assessment Processes

- TAEASS501: Provide advanced assessment practices
- TAEASS502: Design and develop assessment tools
- TAEPDD501: Maintain and enhance professional practice
- TAEASS503: Lead assessment validation processes

CLUSTER 2: Design and Delivery

- TAEDES501: Design and develop learning strategies
- TAEDES505: Evaluate a training program
- TAEDEL502: Provide advanced facilitation practice

NATIONALLY RECOGNISED TRAINING

CLUSTER 3: LLN

- TAELLN411: Address adult LLN skills
- TAELLN501: Support the development of adult LLN skills

CLUSTER 4: E-Learning (Suggested elective choice only)

- TAEDES503: Design and develop e-learning resources
- TAEDEL501: Facilitate e-learning

Highlighted units above indicate the suggested selection of units for assessment in this RPL Pathway. Please note that there are only a maximum of 4 elective units only that need to be selected from this list.

This elective choice provides an option for candidates to select the elective path most suitable to their skills and experiences and can also take into consideration other Diploma level units that you have already completed. For example if you deliver e-learning courses, you can select this cluster or a unit from this cluster as well as one of the other elective choices in the other clusters.
