Privacy and Confidentiality Policy

Connect training group (Connect) is very vigilant in ensuring privacy and confidentiality of information provided by you to us.

Connect training group must collect personal information as part of your application process for training. This information may be of a personal nature and can include details of educational background, employment history, and current employment status, and language, literacy and numeracy skills. The purpose of this information is to allow the staff of Connect to develop effective training and assessment programs and provide the required support, according to the needs of each individual student. This information may also be used by Connect for future planning, reporting, communication, research, evaluation and auditing and marketing. Only authorised Connect staff have access to this information.

Australian government bodies also require specific statistical information relevant to Vocational Education and Training and may use personal information collected as a result of your enrolment to guide future funding and training requirements. This complies with the Data Provision Requirements 2012.

Connect training group strongly supports the privacy and confidentiality of students’ information and this is supported though complying to the Privacy Act 1988 and the Student Identifiers Act 2014.

What do we use this Information for?

Primarily, we use your information to provide you with the services available to you. The purpose of collecting personal information during the enrolment process is to allow the staff of Connect to develop effective training and assessment programs, according to the needs of each individual. This will enable you to enrol and obtain your qualifications.

How do we store this information?

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), Connect Training Group is required to keep some of your information and records for compliance with the National VET Regulator (ASQA) to address the Standards for RTOs 2015 as well as any other Government body requirements, such as National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd (NCVER). Some of these records may need to be kept for up to 30 years to identify what units and certificates have been issued for each individual. Connect Training Group keeps your student records in a secure electronic database, which is backed up hourly and then copied onto an externally stored drive. Access to these records is securely password controlled.

With whom do we Share Your Information?

We will not sell, share, rent or otherwise provide personal information to others, including people in your workplace, spouses or parents, without your written consent.

Certain information regarding geographic location, sex, age, cultural background, etc., are required for statistic requirements by Government bodies to assist in future planning and funding arrangements, this means:

- Your personal information may be disclosed to Commonwealth and State Government authorities and agencies for statistical purposes and funding requirements
- If you are under the age of eighteen (18) years your personal information, attendance details, progress and results may be disclosed to your parent/guardian
Personal information disclosed to NCVER may be used or disclosed for the following purposes:

- Issuing a VET Statement of Attainment or VET Qualification, and populating Authenticated VET Transcripts
- Facilitating statistics and research relating to education, including surveys;
- Understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information; and
- Administering VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation.

You may receive an NCVER student survey, which may be administered by an NCVER employee, agent or third party contractor. You may opt out of the survey at the time of being contacted.

NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the VET Data Policy and all NCVER policies and protocols (including those published on NCVER’s website at www.ncver.edu.au).

Cookies

Connect uses ‘cookies' for the operation of its learning management system. A cookie is a small file that is held on your computer, for the purpose of recording information about the pages that you have visited. Connect does not use these cookies to gather personal information; the activity is solely related to the operation of the Learning Management System.

When required, Connect training group will disclose personal information, when:

- Requested by the rightful user/owner of the personal information
- To comply with legal investigations of purported unlawful activities to conform to the edicts of the law
- To meet any Government body requirements and/or Government funded programs contract arrangements

Obtaining release of personal information

If you need to obtain or release your personal information to a third party, you must:

- Notify the office administrator of Connect training group in writing, by completing a release form, which is provided for this purpose.
- After receiving the completed release form, Connect staff will confirm the request by:
  - Confirming with the Managing Director for authorisation of disclosure
  - Confirming with the client requesting the written consent
  - Provide the information requested if the first two points are achieved

Contacting fellow students

Training participants who wish to stay in contact with other training participants, either through forums, online messaging or virtual classroom sessions, are advised to collect names and contact information in person at the time of the training activity, as Connect will not pass on personal information of any students to other students.
