Code of Practice

As a Registered Training Organisation Connect Training Group has agreed to operate within the Standards for RTOs 2015 set down by the VET National Regulator (Australian Skills Quality Authority (ASQA).

Connect Training Group is committed to providing supportive and positive outcomes from all services provided to our clients. All staff recognise the rights of learners and provide information, advice and support that are consistent with our Code of Practice.

If, at any time, you feel that Connect Training Group, or any staff member, is not abiding by our Code of Practice then you can report your complaints or grievance to the director of Connect Training Group, or anyone in our organisation, or complete our complaints and appeals form.

We provide and support the following services within our Code of Practice

Access & Equity / Discrimination

Connect Training Group is committed to integrating access and equity principles within all our services that we provide to our clients. All staff recognise the rights of learners and provide information, advice and support that is consistent with our Code of Practice.

Regardless of cultural background, religion, gender, sexuality, disability, location or age you have the right to learn in an environment that is free from discrimination and harassment and be treated in a fair and considerate manner while you are studying with us.

Connect Training Group will not tolerate any unlawful discrimination or harassment by Connect Training Group staff of any job applicant, employee or client, based on their sex, pregnancy, marital status, race (including colour, ethnic background, national identity and ethno- religion), homosexuality, disability or age, etc.

Harassment includes any form of behaviour that a person does not want, finds offensive, humiliating or intimidating and is either sexual, or targets them because of the factors mentioned above

Appeal & Complaints Procedures

We have a documented procedure that covers any assessment appeals or general complaints. Should you have an appeal or complaint, information on the process is provided in this students hand book as well as in our policies listed on our website.

Assessment and Validation Procedures

When designing assessment tools, we ensure assessment processes address the standard, meet current industry and/or workplace requirements as well as any regulatory requirements, such as: WHS; privacy and confidentiality of information; reporting requirements; access to records for students; Standards for RTOs relating to assessment, assessor requirements, validation processes.

Assessment tool development includes discussions with relevant industry stakeholders to seek their feedback and comments on the suitability of the assessment tool, including the assessment plan and associated assessment tasks. Based on this feedback and collaboration, comments and suggested changes are recorded on the Learning and Assessment Strategy file and/or the relevant validation report, and then, if required, the assessment tool may be moderated and/or contextualised to ensure it is suitable for specific workplace requirements/environments and to meet current industry standards and the principles of assessment (valid, fair, flexible and reliable).

Systematic validation of assessment tools are scheduled and involve using external validators / stakeholders to address RTO Standards 2015 (standard 1.9 - 1.11). Suggestions, feedback and comments are reviewed to ensure the assessment tool meets the principles of assessment (valid, fair, flexible and reliable) and current industry practices.

You will find a full copy of our Assessment and Validation policy on our website under 'Policy'.

Client support

We currently offer support in: Assessment options including recognition of prior learning (RPL): options in delivery modes: guidance on career paths: one on one tutoring: trainer support during course enrolment: training needs analysis: special needs, including Language, Literacy and Numeracy: clarifying information contained on our web site and course and assessment information and instructions.

Copyright

Written permission to use any of Connect Training Groups Intellectual Property must be gained from Connect Training Group prior to any use of such material. Connect Training Group also abides by this regulation and any reasonable use of excerpts from existing works will include attribution of its origin.

Course Extension Policy

Connect Training Group will not be obliged under any circumstances to extend the period of a student's enrolment if the student has not completed the course in the allocated time. Once the allocated time for a given course has ended the student will no longer be given access to the course material.

An enrolment period can be extended with the payment of an additional fee.

Special circumstances will be taken into consideration, such as illness, which must be supported with a letter from your Doctor.

Course Information

Specific course information is provided on our website for all of courses we currently offer, we are happy to discuss and clarify any questions you may have regarding this information.

Enrolment Process

We provide clear information on the qualifications / skill sets / courses that we offer on our website. This includes the learning and assessment strategies and requirements; expected outcomes; any required skills or knowledge; as well as any additional learning or assessment pathways, enrolment period and costs to enrol into the selected course.

Our enrolment process requires you to complete an enrolment form and provide relevant information to ensure we provide training suitable to your needs. All information collected is kept confidential and is subject to our Privacy Policy in this Code of Practice. Some Australian government bodies also require specific statistical information relevant to Vocational Education and Training and may use personal information collected as a result of your enrolment to guide future funding and training requirements. This includes the requirements under the National VET Data Policy.

Before and during course enrolment we provide learners access to our student handbook as well as our code of conduct to ensure all learners are aware and understand the information contained in both.

We will at any time welcome questions relating to the student handbook, code of conduct and training / assessment requirements to ensure clarity.

External Review

Connect Training Group agrees to participate in external monitoring and audit processes. This covers random quality audits, audit following complaint and audit for the purpose of re-registration. Assessment validation standards, set down in the Standards for RTOs 2015, also stipulate validation of assessment processes include stakeholders not directly involved in the delivery and assessment of the course/ assessment process that is being validated.

Fees & Charges

Information on fees, payment plans, charges and refunds are clearly documented in our web site and our refund policy is provided in this student's handbook. Connect Training Group will only accept a maximum payment of $1500 at time of enrolment to abide by the Standards for RTOs 2015 Clause 7.3, which is to protect pre-paid fees by students. We will provide clear information to all students and clients what fees are due as well as when these are due of the amount to be paid is over the initial fee of $1500 or if the enrolment is based on a payment plan.

Flexible Learning & Assessment procedures

Our training and assessment procedures are flexible and take into account learner needs. We will ensure that:

- ❖ All required resources for the delivery of any course are in place and to the most current industry standards
- ❖ Training and assessment will only be conducted by qualified staff that meet Standards for RTOs 2015 stipulations
- ❖ All training and assessment will be to the nationally set standard prescribed in the relevant Training Package or accredited course material

Language, Literacy & Numeracy (LLN)

Connect Training Group is committed to ensuring accessibility to all perspective students for the training courses we provide.

We also recognise that at times language and literacy problems may restrict a person from achieving the competencies required for particular courses or programs.

Connect Training Group will make every effort to assess a perspective client/learners ability to carry out all the learning tasks and required assessments before enrolment. Where possible, the learning activities/assessments may be modified to compensate for those with literacy or numeracy skill needs. When required, we will also refer students to LLN specialists if their needs are beyond our capabilities. Please refer to our website under the heading 'Policies' to review our: Language, Literacy and Numeracy Policy for further information.

Legislative Requirements

Connect Training Group is committed to meeting all legislative requirements of State and Federal Government, which are specifically detailed in our student handbook and on our website under the heading 'Policies'- Laws & Legislation.

Management & Administration

Connect Training Group has been operating for over 10 years and has in place sound policies, procedures and management strategies, which ensure sound financial and administrative practices to meet legislative requirements and ethical principles. Management guarantees the organisation's sound financial position and safeguards student fees. Our refund policy is fair and equitable. Student records are managed securely and confidentially and are available for student perusal on request.

Marketing & Advertising

Connect Training Group ensures any marketing of Vocational Education and Training products are done so with integrity, accuracy and professionalism. We make every endeavour to avoid vague and ambiguous statements. In the provision of information, no false or misleading comparisons are drawn with any other training organisation or training product. We ensure that our marketing includes: the codes and names of the qualifications/Units of competency the course addresses, as well as expected time frames for completion, costs, assessment requirements and minimum skill and LLN requirement to participate effectively in the advertised course.

Privacy & Confidentiality

Connect training group strongly supports the privacy and confidentiality of students' information and this is supported though complying to the Privacy Act 1988 and the Student Identifiers Act 2014. Certain information regarding geographic location, sex, age, previous study and schooling levels as well as course results are required for statistical requirements by Government bodies to assist in future planning and funding arrangements as well as data for your online record of training under the USI database.

As a Registered Training Organisation (RTO), Connect Training Group is required to keep some of your information and records for compliance with the National VET Regulator (ASQA) to address the Standards for RTOs 2015 as well as any other Government body requirements, such as National Centre for Vocational Education Research Ltd \(NCVER\). Some of these records may need to be kept for up to 30 years to identify what units and certificates have been issued for each individual. Connect Training Group keeps your student records in a secure electronic database, which is backed up hourly and then copied onto an externally stored drive. Access to these records is securely password protected.

Your personal information (including the personal information contained on this enrolment form and your training activity data) may be used or disclosed by Connect Training Group Pty Ltd for statistical, regulatory and research purposes. Connect Training Group Pty Ltd may disclose your personal information for these purposes to third parties, including:

- School – if you are a secondary student undertaking VET, including a school-based apprenticeship or traineeship;
- Employer – if you are enrolled in training paid by your employer;
- Commonwealth and State or Territory government departments and authorised agencies;
- NCVER;
- Organisations conducting student surveys; and
- Researchers

Personal information disclosed to NCVET may be used or disclosed for the following purposes:

- Issuing a VET Statement of Attainment or VET Qualification, and populating Authenticated VET Transcripts
- Facilitating statistics and research relating to education, including surveys;
- Understanding how the VET market operates, for policy, workforce planning and consumer information; and
- Administering VET, including program administration, regulation, monitoring and evaluation

NCVER will collect, hold, use and disclose your personal information in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth), the VET Data Policy and all NCVET policies and protocols (including those published on NCVET's website at www.ncver.edu.au).

You will also find further information relating to this on our website under the heading 'Policies' - Privacy Policy.

Quality Management Focus

Connect Training Group has a commitment to providing quality service and has a strong focus on continuous improvement. We value feedback from students, staff and employers for incorporation into future programs.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Recognition of prior learning assessment is available to all learners. If you believe you have relevant current skills and abilities that you have gained previously, please contact the relevant course trainer. They will discuss the evidence requirements and support documentation required to support your application.

Authorised Signatories

Certificates, Diplomas, and Statements of attainment / transcripts, that are being sent to Connect Training Group as evidence, need to be copied and then sighted as a copy of the original documented and signed and dated by one of the following authorities with this statement on the front of the document/s:

I certify that this is a true copy of the original document sighted by me:

Name: _____ Position/Title: _____

Authorised Signatories:

Justice of the Peace
Policeman
School Principal

Commissionaire of Declarations
Doctor / Registered Nurse

Payment of Fees, Refund Policy & Debt Collection

Students at time of enrolment, or by confirmation of employer or email correspondence, have agreed to pay a fee for a specific course and enrolment period. Your enrolment is considered to have commenced once you have been provided with access to your course or RPL evidence requirements. Connect Training Group will only accept a maximum payment of $1500 at time of enrolment to abide by the Standards for RTOs 2015 Clause 7.3, which is to protect pre-paid fees by students. We will provide clear information to all students and clients what fees are due as well as when these are due of the amount to be paid is over the initial fee of $1500 or if the enrolment is based on a payment plan.

CANCELLATION OF COURSE OR PROGRAM BY CONNECT TRAINING GROUP

Should Connect Training Group cancel a course, for any reason, participants enrolled at the time the cancellation is announced, will be entitled to a full refund, and this will incur no administrative charges or penalties. Participants who have units that have already been assessed as competent will be issued a statement of attainment and have the cost of these units deducted from the refund.

WITHDRAWAL PRIOR TO COURSE OR MODULE COMMENCEMENT

If a participant withdraws from a course before the commencement of the course (within two weeks of enrolling), refund of the course fees paid will be made, less a 25% non-refundable administration fee.

If an employer has made a partial payment for an employee to participate in study under a Government funded program and the employee cancels enrolment before commencement of their course, refund will be made to the employer, with a 10% deduction of fees already paid to address administration fees.

WITHDRAWAL AFTER COURSE COMMENCEMENT

Once enrolled and the participant has commenced the course, a refund will NOT apply. A participant is considered to have commenced a course once they have received their log in details and they have full access to their course materials and/or RPL evidence requirements.

WITHDRAW DUE TO ILLNESS OR HARDSHIP

In the case of a participant withdrawing from a course or program due to illness or extreme hardship, Connect Training Group may, at its discretion, allow a refund of the course fees. The following conditions apply:

- ❖ Participant must produce satisfactory evidence of the circumstances of his/her withdrawal, medical certificates, etc.
- ❖ Participant will forfeit the 25% of the enrolment fee as a non-refundable administration fee. This fee may be a more based on the time the student has already been enrolled, time spent in the course as well as the completion of any of the lessons / units of competency that requires the issuance of a statement of attainment.
- ❖ Notification of illness and / or intention to withdrawal must take place at least two weeks prior to the enrolment end date
- ❖ Participant must not have completed any assessment tasks or lessons associated with course

DEBT COLLECTION – NON-PAYMENT OF AGREED FEES

In order to minimise financial risk to Connect Training Group, outstanding debt is managed through a transparent debt collection process. If training and assessment has been provided (as per agreed enrolment terms) and the learner (individual/s), or the organisation (client) that arranged the enrolment of staff, has not been forthwith in paying the agreed amount, Connect Training Group will engage a registered debt collector to recover this outstanding amount and any fees associated with this engagement will be added to the outstanding fees of the individual/s or client.

Sanctions

Connect Training Group will honour all guarantees outlined in this Code of Practice. We acknowledge that if we do not meet the obligation of this Code and all relevant regulatory requirements, we may have our registration as a Registered Training Organisation withdrawn.

Student Records

You can have access to your own records at any time. This is provided within our learning management system or you can request this information by phone or email.

Student Standards & Plagiarism

Students are required to ensure all responses and/or work they submit for assessment is their own work. Students confirm the authenticity of responses and work submitted as being their own as part of the terms and conditions of enrolment as well as when they first log onto their course using their unique username and password.

To ensure all learners receive equal opportunities and gain the maximum from their time with us, these rules apply to all enrolled learners:

You are required to maintain a high level of etiquette and courtesy during your online discussions with all stakeholders in your learning.

These standards include but are not restricted to:

- ❖ Use of appropriate and polite language in all forms of communication
- ❖ Not copying another persons work and therefore breaching plagiarism standards

Consequences for inappropriate and discriminatory communication may result in your enrolment being terminated and a statement of attainment issued for any units completed to date.

Any person who has had their enrolment suspended or terminated has the right of appeal through our appeals process. You will find further information on this on our website under 'Policies' - Appeals and Complaints policy.

Training & Assessment standards

Connect Training Groups qualified trainers and assessors are continually reviewed to ensure they hold the appropriate qualifications and industry experience to deliver training and assess competence, relevant to the training products offered. Training and assessment processes are reviewed and validated to ensure they meet the requirements of the relevant course and /or industry Training Package, as well as address the current Standards for RTOs relating to training and assessment processes and required qualifications and experience for trainers and assessors. As a registered training organisation (RTO) under the National VET Regulator (ASQA), Connect Training Groups training and assessment processes are audited and validated on a regular basis to confirm compliance with the Standards for RTOs 2015.

Welfare & Guidance Services

We will endeavour to provide information and guidance to all learners. This includes but is not limited to; Specific learning pathways, RPL opportunities and provision for supporting specific learning needs including Language, Literacy and Numeracy.

Appeals Policy

- ❖ You will be provided with 3 attempts at each assessment task and will be provided with constructive feedback and direction after each attempt
- ❖ A learner has the right to appeal any assessment decision of Not Satisfactory or unit of competency decision of Not Yet Competent, including decisions on RPL evidence provided
- ❖ Decisions can be discussed informally with your trainer/assessor by phone or email

If the outcomes achieved are still unsatisfactory, the learner has the right to formalise their case as follows:

RE-ASSESSMENT APPEAL

If a student does not agree with a decision of Not Yet Competent, they must appeal with-in 21 days of the result being posted or advised.

Re-assessment or moderation of decision can occur if:

- ❖ The student has been assessed as not yet competent against specific competency standards
- ❖ The student feels they have sufficient grounds and evidence entitling them to be assessed as competent
- ❖ The student can adequately demonstrate they have the skills and experience to be able to meet the learning outcomes of units they are appealing against

This appeal process can be initiated by contacting the assessor whom made the decision, another assessor, or the director of Connect Training Group, to discuss the reasons for disagreement

APPEAL AGAINST RECOGNITION OF PRIOR LEARNING (RPL)

A student can appeal a decision of not yet competent for an application for RPL:

- ❖ As long as it is with-in 21 days from the result being posted or advised to the learner
- ❖ Can provide sufficient evidence entitling them to be granted RPL
- ❖ Can provide supplemented evidence to adequately demonstrate the skills and experience required

ACADEMIC APPEALS and COMPLAINTS

If a student considers the response to their re-assessment appeal unsatisfactory, they have the right to further appeal to Connect Training Group's academic Board by sending an email to: info@connect.edu.au. We will ensure any complaint is dealt with in a timely manner within a maximum of 7 days of the complaint being made. This time allows for review and regularly correspondence between all parties. If a student is not satisfied with the results from the academic appeal they can then take their complaint to either:

a) National Training Complaints Hotline on 13 38 73 or email: NTCH@education.gov.au
Web-link: <http://www.education.gov.au/NTCH>

b) National VET Regulator (ASQA): <http://www.asqa.gov.au/complaints/complaints.html>

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011

An Act to establish the National Vocational Education and Training Regulator, and for related purposes
Administered by: Department of Industry.

This act will replace the previous VET acts as each State/Territory transfers over to the new National Vet Regulator, where applicable. Some RTOs in VIC and WA will remain with the State Regulator.

The objectives of the National Vocational Education and Training act 2011 are:

- ❖ To establish a system for the effective and efficient provision of high quality vocational education and training to meet the immediate and future needs of industry and the community
- ❖ To support the continued development of high quality training by and within industry
- ❖ To facilitate the provision of vocational education and training that is relevant to employment and encourages the generation of employment opportunities

To regulate the registration of training organisations within each State / Territory

Link: <https://www.legislation.gov.au/Details/C2017C00245>

Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015

The objectives of these standards' are to ensure a nationally consistent, high-quality training and assessment service for the clients of Australia's vocational education and training (VET) system.

The purpose of these Standards is to:

- ❖ Set out the requirements that an organisation must meet in order to be a registered training organisation (RTO);
- ❖ Ensure that training products delivered by RTOs meet the requirements of training packages or VET accredited courses, and have integrity for employment and further study; and
- ❖ Ensure RTOs operate ethically with due consideration of learners' and enterprises' needs

These Standards form part of the VET Quality Framework
